

Ashe County Amateur Radio Emergency Service Net

CQ CQ CQ. Calling all radio amateurs. Good evening and welcome to the Ashe County Amateur Radio Emergency Service Net. This is _____ your net control station. My name is _____, and I am located in _____, North Carolina. This net meets each Monday at 9:00 p.m. local time on the W4YSB repeater, 147.30 MHz, located in Jefferson, North Carolina. A sub-audible tone of 103.5 Hertz is required to access this repeater. (Break-Unkey)

This is a directed net. We meet for purposes of training, to handle emergency or priority traffic, to provide communications in times of an emergency, to serve as a forum for discussions, and to foster fellowship among radio amateurs. All stations are welcome. (Break-Unkey)

Do we have stations with emergency or priority traffic? If so, please call _____. (This traffic, if any, should be handled now.)

Do we have stations with net business, announcements, or bulletins? If so, please call _____. (Call for these announcements or net business after "check-in" and traffic is complete.)

All stations please standby for roll call. Please check-in in alphabetical order according to the first letter in the suffix of your call. (Break-Unkey)

Stations Alpha through Golf, please call _____.

Stations Hotel through November, please call _____.

Stations Oscar through Tango, please call _____.

Stations Uniform through Zulu, please call _____.

Additional stations Alpha through Zulu, please call _____.

(Handle traffic, listed during check-ins, then announcements/net business now.)

This is _____ closing the formal portion of the Ashe County Amateur Radio Emergency Service Net. Those stations that would like to be excused from the net may secure at this time. We will now go to comments from our check-ins.

(Call each station not listed as "Out", for their comments.)

(When comments are complete, call for additional check-ins.)

Are there any additional stations wishing to check in to the Ashe County Amateur Radio Emergency Service Net, please call _____.

(When all check-ins have been called for comments, close the net.)

This is _____ closing the Ashe County Amateur Radio Emergency Service Net at _____:_____ p.m. local time. I would like to thank all stations for checking into the net and participating. This is _____, returning the W4YSB repeater back to normal amateur use. 73 and good evening. _____ is clear.